THE ROLLING STONE
 WEEKLY NEWS AND EVENTS FROM CLEVELAND'S ORIGINAL ROCK

New at Old Stone

OSC Plant Exchange: It's that time again! Our annual Old Stone Plant Exchange will take place TODAY during Coffee Hour.

Chimes Update: Thanks to all who submitted to the summer edition of our Chimes newsletter! The next edition will be distributed in our ConneXions newsletter in the coming weeks. Those who have requested hard copies will receive them in their mailbox.

Guest Choir: Old Stone is proud to welcome Exultation, a youth choir hailing from Plano, TX, who will be performing for us this Father's Day during our regular worship service. Comprising over 40 kids ranging from 6th to 12th grade, the choir has performed coast to coast for over 25 years. More info and videos available at the Old Stone Facebook page.

YMCA Camp: Old Stone will again be hosting the YMCA of Greater Cleveland's 2019 Summer Day camp from June 3rd through August 9th from 7am to 6pm. The camp is open to children 5 to 12 years of age; activities will take place on the third floor of Old Stone Center. Visit clevelandymca.org for more information.

Have you signed up for our newsletter yet? ConneXions gives you the latest news and events from Old Stone each week in your inbox. Visit our website to sign up, or email Liz Fox at liz@oldstonechurch.org to be added to our list. Newsletter is sent every Friday.

Holden Fellowship Outing: The trip to Holden Arboretum scheduled for this Saturday (June 8th) has been cancelled. Please stay tuned for more updates on future outings with the Old Stone Fellowship Team!

Membership Directory: An updated membership directory is now live on our new website! To access, hover over "Menu" in the top right corner and select "Membership Directory" under the "Membership" section. The password is the same as the previous version; if you are a member who needs the password, please email liz@oldstonechurch.org. Hard copies are available by request—contact the church office.

We welcome you in the name of Jesus Christ!

Please join us in fulfilling our unique mission:
loving Christ, serving city, spiritually, socially and culturally!

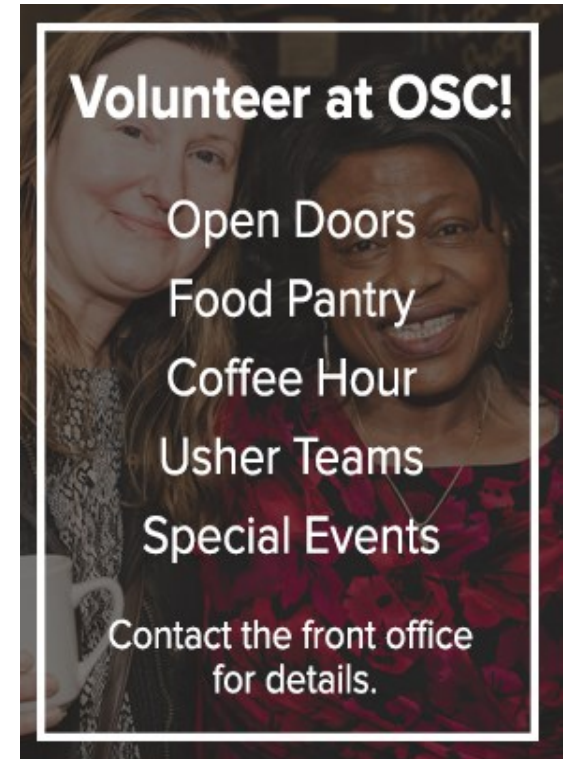

Our Stewardship Kick-off is almost here! While stewardship of our time, talents, and finances is something we work on faithfully year-round, our 2019 Stewardship Campaign will officially begin next Sunday and run until September 22nd, Old Stone's 199th birthday. Join us for the kick-off next week and stay tuned for more info in the Rolling Stone, Chimes, and ConneXions newsletters.

Session Reminder: All Elders will meet in the Chapel next Sunday (June 9th) at 9am to greet our new members, who will be received in worship that morning.

Attention, prospective members: For those who missed the first new members class, Rev. Mark Eldred is holding a catch-up session tomorrow (June 3rd) in the Gallery at Old Stone at 6:30pm.. Email meldred@oldstonechurch.org for details.

Last week for our current gallery show! Take a last look at the colorful, nature-inspired works by Italian-American artist Stacy Gibboni before the exhibit concludes this week at Old Stone. Artwork is also available for purchase prior to show closing. More details to follow about our upcoming show!

Take a Hike! Our community partners at the Gateway District are showcasing some of Cleveland's great landmarks... including our very own historic sanctuary! Tours are held every Tuesday at 6pm and start at Old Stone before moving on to sites like the 5th Street Arcades, the Garfield building, and more. Details can be found at clevelandgatewaydistrict.org or at the Gateway District Facebook page.

Donations for the 2020 Homeless Stand Down are starting NOW! We will be collecting items for the 2020 Homeless Stand Down Hygiene kits one at a time over a seven month stretch – June is Toothbrushes month. Let's make 2020 a 100% success with enough items for 225 kits! Bring them toothbrushes on Sundays and look for our handy dandy toothbrush meter to see the progress. More details to follow in future editions of the Rolling Stone as well as the next edition of Chimes. Questions? Email meldred@oldstonechurch.org or contact the front office during regular business hours.
