Prayer for the Week

Lord, help us to know that the most important road that we will walk is the road toward you and to you, and may you bless us with your gifts of mercy, grace, and love as we pass many other children of God along the way. Amen.

New at Old Stone

Homeless Stand Down 2020 Hygiene Drive: In June we collected over 250 toothbrushes—nearly 30 over our original goal! Now it's time to make this month just as good. Let's keep up the momentum by giving 225 tubes of toothpaste through July! Keep an eye on our "toothpaste meter" in the lobby, or read future editions of the Rolling Stone for more updates.

Summer Choir Update: The next rehearsal for our summer choir will take place Sunday, July 21st at 11:30am in the Sanctuary. Singers will then participate during worship on the following Sunday (July 28th) at 10am (meet at 9am for rehearsal). Everyone is welcome to join the fun—we're already off to a wonderful start!

Looking for a place where everyone knows and cares about you? Old Stone hosts many support groups and wellness programs throughout the week for those struggling with addiction. To learn more about these groups and what they have to offer, visit oldstonechurch.org.

BorderLight Theater and Fringe Festival: From Thursday, July 25th through Saturday, July 27th, Old Stone will host several theatrical performances as part of the BorderLight International Theatre and Fringe Festival, which features over 100 performances from 40 production companies around the world. More information on what's showing at Old Stone (including dates, times, and admission fees) can be found at borderlightcle.org or at the Borderlight Facebook page.
